This workshop will focus on a fun and practical approach to training, polishing and motivating the open and utility exercises. We encourage participants to send in their problems and questions ahead of time. Specific problems will be addressed during the workshop.

Betsy Scapicchio, owner and training director at Top Dog Obedience School, has been teaching and training dogs successfully for over 20 years. She has worked with many breeds and sizes of dogs, both with her students and her own dogs. Four of her dogs were adopted from shelters or neglectful homes. Her personal credits include nine Companion Dog, nine Companion Dog Excellent, five Utility Dog, and two Utility Dog Excellent titles, as well as five Obedience Trial Championships, plus numerous titles in U.K.C., Canada, and A.S.C.A. obedience. Each of the eleven dogs that Betsy has shown has been awarded High in Trial.

Linda S. Brennan started training with Betsy in 1986. Linda has been an instructor at Top Dog since 1991 and a full-time dog trainer since 1999. Linda's students have earned CD, CDX, UD, UDX and OTCH titles and High in Trials. Along with obedience training she also shows dogs successfully in conformation, primarily breeds from the sporting, working and herding groups.

Registration: $200 for working spots ($180 for ODTC Members) limited to 20 teams. Auditor spots are $100 ($80 for ODTC Members).

Continental breakfast and lunch is included both days. No refunds will be given after October 1st, 2013 unless there is a waiting list or you find a replacement for your slot. Seminar times are 9:00am-4:00pm both days.
